Poetical.

For the Columbian.

Happiness.

BY TILLIE LAUBACH.

HAPPINESS—earth's joys are fleeting,
Poisonous are her fairest flowers,
All her smiles are chased by sadness,
Fraught with clouds her sunniest hours;
Transient all her wealth and splendor,
Soon her palaces decay,
And her hopes, ah! airy easel s,
At her feet, in ruins lay.

HAPPINESS—nought but thy shadow
Shines on this terrestial sphere,
But thou art radient in the heavens,
Unalloyed by pain, or fear;
Aye, thou'rt soaring high in glory,
Written on each angel face;
Glorious impress of Jehovah,
Essence of the Saviour's grace.

HAPPINESS—thou'rt where the harps of
Join in one harmonious tone,
Where the living, crystal waters
Bubble from Jehovah's throne;
Where the blood washed throng are singing
Soft and low their cadence sweet,
And in robes of spotless glory,
Hover 'round the Saviour's feet.

HAPPINESS—I know I'll find thee,
When my saviour bids me come,
Though I'v earthly ties to bind me,
Yet I'm longing for my home.
Longing for that bliss immortal,
Where the wearied are at rest,
And like favored John reclining,
Happy on the Saviour's breast.

Milking-Time.

BY GEORGE COOPER.

When shadows lengthen on the plain
And leaves are scarlet in the sun;
When cows are lowing in the lane,
And coming homeward one by one;
When maids are tangled in the trees
That overhang the river's bank;
And farmers chat and take their ease,
And shining pails go "clink and clank;"
That's milking-time.

When pigs and Fido linger round,
And run beside the dairy-maids;
When circling swallows skim the ground,
And on the eaves make sudden raids;
When boy girls a ditty sing,
And squirrels hide in hearty home;
And crossbe jets go "ping and ping"
And pails are heaped with creamy foam;
That's milking-time.

When little ones are tired with play,
And in the corners blink and nod;
When hayfields are loud and gay,
And wetted grows the chilly sod;
When stars are few and faintly glow,
And waking dreflies gather fast,
Like-drifted flakes of golden snow—
It's bey for home; the hour is past
For milking-time!

THE NEW BEECHER CHURCH.

BY MARK TWAIN.

If the Rev. Mr. Smith, or the Rev. Mr. Jones, or the Rev. Mr. Brown, were about to build a new church edifice, it would be projected on the same old pattern, and be like pretty much all the other churches in the country, and so I would naturally mention it as a new Presbyterian church, or a new Methodist church, or a new Baptist church and never think of calling it by the pastor's name; but when a Beecher projects a church, that edifice is necessarily going to be something entirely fresh and original; it is not going to be like any other church in the world; it is going to be as variegated, eccentric and marked with as peculiar and striking an individuality as a Beecher himself; it is going to have a deal more Beecher in it than any one narrow creed can fit into without rattling, or any one arbitrary order of architecture can symmetrically enclose and cover. Consequently, to call it simply a Congregational church would not give half an idea of the thing. There is only one word broad enough and wide enough and deep enough to take in the whole affair and express it clearly, luminously and concisely—and that is Beecher. The projected edifice I am about to speak of is, therefore, properly named in my caption as a new "Beecher Church."

The projector is the Rev. Thomas K. Beecher—brother of the other one of course—I never knew but one Beecher that wasn't, and he was a nephew. The new church is to be built in Elmira, N. Y., where Mr. B. has been preaching to one and the same congregation for the last sixteen years, and is thoroughly esteemed and beloved by his people. I have had opportunity to hear all about the new church, for I have lately been visiting in Elmira.

Now, when one has that disease which gives its possessor the title of "humorist," he must make oath to his statements, or else the public will not believe him. Therefore I make solemn oath that what I am going to tell about the new church is the strict truth.

The main building—for there are to be three, massed together in a large grassy square ornamented with quite a forest of shade trees—will be the church proper. It will be lofty, in order to secure good air and ventilation. The auditorum will be circular—an amphitheatre, after the ordinary pattern of an opera house, without galleries. It is to seat a thousand persons. On one side (or one end if you choose), will be an ample, raised platform for the minister, the rear half of which will be occupied by the organ and the choir. Before the minister, will be the circling amphitheatre of pews, the first thirty or forty on the level floor, and the next rising in graduated tiers to the walls. The seats on the level floor will be occupied by the aged and infirm, who can enter the church through a hall under the speaker's platform without climbing any stairs. The people occupying the raised tiers will enter by a dozen doors opening into the church from a lobby like an opera house lobby, and descend the various aisles to their places. In case of fire or earthquakes, these numerous exists will be convenient and useful.

No space is to be wasted. Under the raised tiers of pews are to be stalls for horses and carriages, so that these may be sheltered from sun and rain.—There will be twenty-four of these stalls, each stall to be entered by an arch of ornamental masonry—no doors to open or shut. Consequently the outside base of the church will have a formidable port-holed look, like a man-of-war. The stalls are to be so mailed with "deadeners," and so thoroughly plastered, that neither sound nor smell can ascend to the church and offend the worshippers.—The horses will be in attendance at the church but an hour or two at a time, of course, and can defile the stalls but little; an immediate cleansing after they leave is to set all right again.

There is to be no steeple on the church—merely because no practical use can be made of it.

There is to be no bell, because any ignoramus knows what time church service begins without that exasperating nuisance. In explanation of this remark, I will state that at home I suffer in the vicinity and under the distracting clangor of thirteen church bells, all of whom (is that right?) clamor at once, and no two in accord. A large part of my most valuable time is taken up in devising cruel and unusual sufferings and in fancy inflicting them on those bell-ringers and having a good time.

The second building is to be less lofty that the church; is to be built right against the rear of it, and communicate with it by a door. It is to have two stories. On the first floor will be three distinct Sunday school rooms—all large, but one considerably larger than the other two. The Sunday school connected with Mr. Beecher's church has always been a "graded" one, and each department singularly thorough in its grade of instruction; the pupil wins his advancement to the higher grades by hard-won proficiency, not by mere added years.—The largest of the three compartments will be used as the main Sunday school room, and for the weekday evening lecture.

The whole upper story of this large building will be well lighted and ventilated, and occupied wholly as a play room for the children of the church, and it will stand open and welcome to them through all the week-days. They can fill it with their playthings if they choose, and besides it will be furnished with dumb-bells, swings, rocking horses and all such matters as children delight in. The idea is to make a child look upon a church as only another home, and a sunny one, rather than as a dismal exile or a prison.

The third building will be less lofty than the second; it will adjoin the rear of the second, and communicate with it by a door, or doors. It will consist of three stories. Like the other two buildings, it will cover considerable ground. On the first floor will be the "church parlors," where the usual social gatherings of modern congregations are held. On the same floor, and opening into the parlors, will be a reception room, and also a circulating library—a free library—not simply free to the church membership, but to everybody, just as is the present library of Mr. Beecher's church (and few libraries are most extensively and more diligently and gratefully used than this one.) Also on the first floor and communicating with the parlors, will be—tell it not in Gath, publish it not in Askalon!—six bath rooms!—hot and cold water—free tickets issued to any applicant among the unclean of the congregation! The idea is sound and sensible for this reason: Many members of all congregations have no good bathing facilities, and are not able to pay for them at the barber-shops without feeling the expense; and yet a luxurious bath is a thing that all civilized beings greatly enjoy and derive healthful benefit from. The church buildings are to be heated with steam, and consequently the waste steam can be very judiciously utilized in the proposed bath-rooms. In speaking of this bath-room project, I have revealed a state secret—but I never could keep one of any kind, state or otherwise. Even the congregation were not to know of this matter; the building committee were to leave it unmentioned in their report; but I got hold of it—and from a member of that committee, too—and I had rather part with one of my hind legs than to keep still about it. The bath rooms are unquestionably to be built, and so why not tell it?

In the second story of this third building will be the permanent residence of the "church missionary," a lady who constantly looks after the poor and sick of the church; also a set of lodging and living rooms for the janitors (or janitresses?)—for they will be women, Mr. Beecher holding that women are tidier and more efficient in such a position than men, and that they ought to dwell upon the premises and give them their undivided care; also on this second floor are to be six rooms to do duty as a church infirmary for the sick poor of the congregation, this church having always supported and taken care of its own unfortunates instead of leaving them to the public charity. In the infirmary will be kept one or two water-beds (for invalids whose pains will not allow them to lie on a less yielding substance,) and half a dozen reclining invalid-chairs on wheels. The water-beds and invalid-chairs at present belonging to the church are always in demand and never out of service. Part of the appurtenances of the new church will be a horse and an easy vehicle, to be kept and driven by a janitor, and used wholly for giving the church's indigent invalids air and exercise. It is found that such an establishment is daily needed—so much so, indeed, as to almost amount to a church necessity.

The third story of this third building is to be occupied as the church kitchen, and it is sensibly placed aloft, so that the ascending nose and boarding-house smells shall go up and aggravate the birds instead of the saints—except such of the latter as are above the clouds, and they can easily keep out of the way of it, no doubt. Dumb-waiters will carry the food down to the church parlors instead of up. Why is it that nobody has thought of the simple wisdom of this arrangement before? Is it for a church to step forward and tell us how to get rid of kitchen smells and noises? If it be asked why the new church will need a kitchen, I remind the reader of the infirmary occupants, etc. They must eat; and besides, social gatherings of members of this congregation meet at the church parlors as often as three and four evenings a week, and sew, drink tea, and g——. G——. It commences with g, I think, but somehow I cannot think of the word. The new church parlors will be large, and it is intended that these social gatherings shall be promoted and encouraged, and that they shall take an added phase, viz: when several families want to indulge in a little re-union, and have not room in their small houses at home, they can have it in the church parlors. You will notice in every feature of this new church one predominant idea and purpose always discernible—the banding together of the congregation as a family, and the making of the church a home. You see it in the playroom, the library, the parlors, the baths, the infirmary—it is everywhere. It is the great central. To entirely consummate such a thing would be impossible with nearly any other congregation in the Union; but after sixteen years of moulding and teaching, Mr. Beecher has made it wholly possible and practicable with this one. It is not stretching metaphor too far to say that he is the father of his people, and his church their mother.

If the new church project is a curiosity, it is still but an inferior curiosity compared to the plan of raising the money for it. One could have told, with his eyes shut and one hand tied behind him, that it originated from a Beecher—I was going to say with a lunatic, but the success of the plan robs me of the opportunity.

When it was decided to build a new church edifice at a cost of not less than $10,000, nor more than $50,000 (for the membership is not three hundred and fifty strong, and there are not six men in it who can strictly be called rich,) Mr. Beecher gave to each member a printed circular enclosed in an envelope prepaid and addressed to himself, to be returned through the post office:

[CONFIDENTIAL.]

It is proposed to build a meeting-house and other rooms for the use of the church. To do this work honestly and well, it is proposed to spend one year in raising a part of the money in advance, and in getting plans and making contracts.

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday September 8, 1871.

Divide and Conquer!

One of the main dependencies of the Radical State Committee for success at the ensuing election is to create divisions in the strongly Democratic counties and thus diminish their majorities. They have raised a large corruption fund for this purpose and are using it to induce volunteer candidates to come out against the regular nominees of the party, hoping by such divisions and consequent ill-feeling to keep Democrats away from the election. When so fully warned of the purposes of these movements, and that they are instigated by the Radical leaders, will not every Democrat guard against their effect? Will not every one turn out to the polls? Will not every one discourage disorganization? Will not every Democrat rally around the good old standard and uphold it with his very best endeavors? Remember that every man who asks you to divide your strength asks you to weaken yourselves! Every one who attempts to create ill-feeling does so with the deliberate intention of weakening the party! He is doing that which disheartens its friends and destroys its hopes of success. Every body knows that a united party is stronger than a divided one, and every Republican rejoices at Democratic division. They encourage it and then laugh in their sleeves at their success, and whenever they can anger a Democrat at his party they count it a gain!

Democrats, let your motto be UNION and VICTORY! State and National success are at stake! The question is whether the Democrats or Republicans shall gain this important victory. Let us unite as one man and put forth all our strength, as a great and well organized army, to gain a Democratic triumph. Columbia is one of the most important counties in the State and her example in doing her whole duty will have a most important influence. Rally together for the cause and let no cunning machinations or tricks of your enemy drive you from your patriotic purpose. Remember that those are most successful whose united efforts most deserve success!

Life of Dr. Stanton.

The proud boast of the sanguinary hero, Dr. STANTON, that he never led any body into danger, may be supplemented by his Radical supporters with the additional boast that he never got any body out of it! A hero without a battle or even a military command—a Colonel without appointment, election or commission, his valor is attested only by the descretion with which he retreated into Ohio and took shelter within the walls of a hospital well filled with the luxuries the government had paid him for providing. Here, amidst nurses and waiters and wondering lacquies, the Surgeon displayed his rich regimentals to wondering eyes and demonstrated how loyalty paid best when it kept out of danger but in close proximity to Uncle Sam's purse strings! In fact, the gallant Colonel always preferred handling pills and cash to bullets and swords, and he was firmly of the opinion that the proximity of nurses was preferable to that of Rebels! To have his bowels swelled with plum puddings was to his mind far preferable to having them ripped up with hostile swords or riddled with bullets, and he therefore preferred his downy bed to tented danger in the field. His candidacy now for the Auditor Generalship is a fulfillment of those patriotic impulses ever actuating him which led him to serve his country in those positions which paid well and were free from danger. The incidents and experiences of army contracting peculiarly qualify him for covering up and obscuring the pecadilloes and rascalities of the confederates who gave him the nomination for Auditor General. No EVANS steals will be permitted to see the light after his election, and all other loyal frauds will be securely covered up from the prying eyes of meddlesome taxpayers who want to know what becomes of their money. But so complex is the history of Dr. STANTON that we must give it by piece meal. More anon.

GEO. O. EVANS, a State war claim agent, defrauded the State out of more than $300,000. Neither the Governor, Auditor General, State Treasurer, or Attorney General, Radical officials whose business it was to see that the money was paid into the State treasury, took any notice of the fraud.

Finally a Deputy in the Attorney General's office discovered it. He at once exposed the villainy. Notwithstanding the fact that no efforts were made to punish the villain who stole the money of the State or to compel him to pay back that which he stole, until public opinion compelled such action, the humble Deputy is removed from office for telling the public about the theft!! The thief who stole is left scott-free for years, but the man who told on him is promptly punished! Such is the conduct of Radical office-holders!

Both Radical U. S. Senators were cognizant of this great steal—both knew all about it. But not a word had they to say about it! Did they get part of the proceeds? Did the money go into the Radical electioneering fund? How much of it did the office-holders' ring of Bloomsburg get? Does the money still jingle in their pockets or did they divide with the volunteers? Where is the money?

THE Pamphlet Laws of the last session of the Legislature are now published in a huge volume of 1670 pages! The total number of acts public and private, is one thousand four hundred and fifteen, besides twenty-two Joint Resolutions.

This book and the contents of this book furnish a conclusive argument in favor of a Constitutional Convention, by means of which alone can this enormous flood of legislation, partly useless and partly pernicious, be stopped.

DEMOCRATS! the time for action has arrived. You are called upon to do your duty, and your whole duty. The campaign has fairly opened, and the day of battle is approaching. If you would achieve victory, to work at once. What is wanted is complete organization. See to it that this is effected. With it the day is our own. Without it comes defeat.

The Convention Question.

The rascals have got ahead of the old State Constitution and it is necessary to make amendments to it which shall check them and secure the rights of the people.

Corporations must be reformed, regulated and curbed, so that they shall not absorb popular power, control legislation, become hot-beds of abuse and demoralize society.

Private and special legislation must be cut off and all the matters with which it is concerned be regulated by general laws.

The proposition should be submitted to the people that the sessions of the Legislature shall be biennial, except only when the two Houses shall be convened by the Governor. A single legislative session cut off or saved under such an amendment would much more than cover the whole cost of a Convention.

The election of State Treasurer should be taken from the Legislature, where it is an occasion and cause of intrigue and corruption, leading inevitably to maladministration and misuse of the public funds.

The purity and fairness of popular elections should be further secured by uniform regulations which the Legislature cannot disturb or destroy in the interest of party after the fashion of the existing evil statute for the constitution of election boards in Philadelphia. Of constitutional right each party should have its share of election officers throughout the State, electable by its own votes.

Provisions for the more complete and just representation of the people in Government, and authorizing legislative action to that end, should be submitted for popular consideration and acceptance.

These are some of the important subjects to be had in view by the citizens when they come to vote upon the question of a Convention at the approaching election. That their decision will be in favor of a Convention is reasonably certain, and in our opinion such decision will be wise and timely. No doubt, if a Convention shall be authorized, it will be called under the main provisions of the bill proposed at the last session in the Senate, which secured fair representation to the people in Convention, limited the sitting of the Convention to one hundred days, fixed the pay of members at a moderate sum and provided that one-third of the members of the Convention might require the separate submission to the people of any amendment proposed by the Convention. This last provision will protect the people from bad amendments, if such shall be proposed by a Convention majority. They will not be compelled to take bad amendments in order to get good ones, but can discriminate between them in casting their votes.

More Radical Fraud!

It is a palpable fraud for the Radicals to palm Dr. DAVID STANTON upon the public as a Colonel. He never served in the army as such, nor in any other military capacity, and never even held a Colonel's commission, either in peace or war. Surgeons, it is true, hold nominal rank, which fixes their pay but gives no command. If STANTON'S history is rightly given he was not even a Surgeon in the field and was never in the army. So far as he served at all he was merely a lopolly about hospitals situated at a very safe distance from rebeldom, and was employed in supplying these with medicines and not in attending to the sick. Such are the representations made. They remain uncontradicted. No history of his military services is given by his supporters. If he had a worthy military record they would be glad and in a hurry to give it in the most highly embellished form. As none is given, it is fair to infer that he has none, and that such pretence by giving him a title he never held is a fraud.

BEATH is in little better plight. It is claimed for him that he held a commission in a negro company, but no account is given of his military history. Come, Messrs. Radicals, if your candidates are really military men they must have a history, and if they have a history the public is entitled to the benefit of it. It is high time it is brought out, for the truth of a history given only on the eve of the election, when there is no time for examination, may well be doubted. The public want to know what your candidates have done for their country, if any thing.

The Great Evans Steal.

The queerest thing out is the removal of J. M. M'CLURE, Deputy Attorney General, for ferreting out the great EVANS theft! Ordinarily a public officer would be thanked for such action, as it is plainly a simple performance of duty to the State. To watch the interests of the State and to expose any villainy that may be detected, all honest men will hold is a duty of those entrusted with the care of its affairs, but for discharging this very duty the Radical Attorney General, at the avowed dictation of the Radical Governor, removes the officer who ferreted out one of the most nefarious pieces of rascality ever perpetrated upon the State, and which is also a swindle of the Federal government! This act can be looked upon in no other light than a deliberate assumption of the crime by Gov. GEARY and Attorney General BREWSTER. The Philadelphia Ledger, a non-partisan paper, thus sums up the case:

The Deputy Attorney General "had done an important and valuable service to the people of the Commonwealth; he had exposed an enormous public wrong; he deserved high praise and hearty encouragement from his superiors; but instead of that he is rewarded by a demand for his removal by the Governor, and his actual expulsion by the Attorney General. Why? Every honorable man must ask this question: why? And the Governor and the Attorney General, by their extraordinary course through the whole proceedings in the matter, terminating in the expulsion of the officer who exposed the gigantic fraud, justify the public in looking to them for the answer."

DRIVEN to the wall on its false charges the Republican throws them overboard and goes back to last year to trump up slanders against the Centralia and Conyngham delegates. As we were not in the county then we are not familiar with what was done at that time, but we know that the abused delegates vindicated themselves by affidavits after the election, which we published. Will the Republican have the fairness to republish these affidavits? Surely any man who has regard for truth will publish a sworn defence in any case where he makes an infamous charge.

Radical Corruption Fund.

DEMOCRATS BE ON YOUR GUARD.

To the robbery of the Federal and State Treasuries, the immense sums furnished by government Contractors and by the Bankers who distribute the government loans, and other stealings, the Radicals propose to add a heavy collection from their office-holders and partisans, as will be seen by the circular attached, which has been exposed by one of the victims. By such means a popular majority is to be BOUGHT UP in Pennsylvania and the will of the people is to be defeated!

This nefarious game is commenced by attempts to divide and distract the Democratic party in its various strongholds. Already this grand scheme is in motion in Luzerne, Schuylkill, York, Northumberland, Columbia and other strongly Democratic counties and districts and endeavors will be made to extend it to every democratic county in the State! Volunteer candidates are the mere instruments to carry out the Radical purposes, and where they are not directly bought up, brought out, and supplied from the Radical corruption fund, their candidacy is upheld and supported by the Radical leaders who furnish the main part of the money to pay expenses. Democrats of Columbia, Luzerne, Schuylkill, York, Northumberland—Democrats everywhere—AROUSE TO ACTION and teach these mercenaries that you cannot be corrupted, inveigled, or defeated by their cunning tricks or their corruption funds! Rally round your flag, sustain every nominee, and poll every vote for the Democratic cause!

Here is the Radical circular, read it attentively, and go to work with the more energy to sustain your principles! Now to the circular:

(confidential.)

UNION REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

PHILADELPHIA, ——, 1871.

SIR:—The great Republican Party, which has so successfully administered the affairs of the National Government and a majority of the State Governments during the past ten years, enters upon the present campaign in the State of Pennsylvania with the confidence that its glorious work in the past has been endorsed and approved by every sincere lover of his State and country. Our party must, in the present struggle for political supremacy throughout the State, add another victory to the many already won, and place Pennsylvania as unqualifiedly republican in the coming Presidential contest in 1872.

Every effort will be made by the Democratic party to gain control of the House of Representatives, which, under the apportionment bill passed by the Legislature of '71, gives the Republican party a majority of six members. This majority must be maintained—A Democratic ascendancy in both Houses of the Legislature may cause defeat in the campaign of 1872.

We ask your aid, support and active co-operation in the labors and movements which the State Committee proposes to inaugurate during the present canvass. We, therefore, respectfully solicit from you One hundred Dollars, and —per cent. on the yearly compensation of your employees, as a contribution for the use of the committee. All funds will be judiciously expended for organization, documents and meetings. The remittance should be made by check, money order, or registered letter, and addressed to Gen. Henry H. Bingham, Treasurer, U. R. S. C. C., Philadelphia.

Lycoming County.

The Democratic Convention of Lycoming county nominated a most unexceptionable and worthy ticket last week, and we hope they will see to it that every man on it is elected by a full vote of the party. HUSTON HEPBURN, Esq., is one of the nominees for Associate Judge. We congratulate our old friend that he is thus placed in a fair way to assume the title legally he has so long held by courtesy and that he is no longer to be separated even officially from his inevitable companion, the President Judge. The Standard speaks in glowing terms of the excellence of the ticket and the satisfaction with which it is received by the whole party. The convention unanimously declared for Gen. HANCOCK for President.

More Corruption!

A committee of Radical politicians are now at Washington levying a contribution to the corruption fund from the various Government employees! All the Secretaries have given their Pennsylvania clerks leave of absence to attend the election, notwithstanding the fact that they all voted at the Washington city election! Let Democrats be prepared for this fraud! Where these clerks appear to vote they ought to be required to swear that they have no other residence and have not voted in any other State or Territory within six months. In all cases where election officers wrongfully receive their votes, the culpable officers and fraudulent voter ought to be promptly arrested.

IF Dr. STANTON was ever brevetted for "distinguished services" it will be very easy to tell what those services were. What battle-field did he ever see? That he was connected with the brave Pennsylvania Reserves before they left the State may be true, but about the time or shortly after they entered the field of hostilities, Dr. STANTON had himself transferred to another service by his uncle, and it is alledged spent the balance of his time out of sight or hearing of battle. If this statement is not true, why don't his friends give his history?

THE Radicals of Bradford county have nominated Col. GORDON F. MASON for Senator. GORDON was once a star in the Democratic galaxy but a 3000 county majority on the other side made him see a new light. We are, however, glad of his nomination, for he is a much better man than the Radicals of Bradford usually send to the Legislature—much less addicted to general corruption.

GEN. M'CANDLESS is traversing the State, speaking with great effect wherever he goes. When he is elected Auditor General there will be no more EVANS swindles or the like.

Gen. M'CANDLESS will make a speech in Bloomsburg upon the close of the campaign.

THE entire National five per cent. gold interest loan has been taken, $200,000,000 were offered. It would be curious to know how much the National Treasury will realize from this loan, but our Radical rulers do not give the public such information.

HORACE GREELY is a candidate for President and his friends are beginning to marshal their forces. It is doubtful whether they will yield to GRANT'S nomination under any circumstances.

THE people of Centralia and the two Conyngham districts, as a general thing, are an humble, hardworking and industrious people, having little business connection with the rest of the county, for the most part pursue an altogether different occupation from the rest, are of a different nationality, having few acquaintances and no relatives in the other parts of the county—and a very large majority of them, having fled from oppression and tyranny in other lands, vote with the Democratic party. For the last reason they are grossly slandered, and for the preceding reasons it may be entirely safe to do so. Whether it is either respectable or manly, or in the least degree honorable, for any man (much less a newspaper) to do so, we leave to the good sense of an enlighted and generous people to determine. We doubt whether there is a worse pest in society than a reckless or loose-tongued calumniator, and if he happens to have a press at his command the case is aggravated. We do not know that the people referred to care any thing about their villifiers or their foul slanders, and we incline to the opinion that the injury done to the rest of the community is greater than to them, but a political party that has no better stock in trade ought to blush to present its case to the public—ought to retire to the rabble of viperous tattlers and common scolds. The defamation of private citizens, and of public officers or candidates, is base, low and unworthy, and the venom that gives rise to it is justly despised by all right-thinking people. The party or community that tolerates it will soon cease to command respect, and although we have felt compelled to notice some of this sort of thing lately we despise it too much even to make a practice of contradicting its falsehoods and slang.

The Corruption Slander.

The Republican gave currency to the slander that Mr. SHAFFER had purchased delegates and intimated that it could prove the charge. When confronted with a flat denial it began to higgle—that somebody had told somebody else that he had heard, &c., &c. But we hold the promulgator squarely to the point: prove your charge if you can—as you know you can not, withdraw it like a man—if you do neither, then stand before the public a convicted and confessed calumniator. There is no escape—one or the other horn of the dilemma must be taken!

With all fair men it is enough, when a charge is made, for the defence to enter a simple denial and challenge proof. If the accuser can not produce proof, he must take the consequences of making a false charge. In the case of all allegations of bribery in reference to any delegate in the late Democratic county convention, or any candidate before it, not only is the charge denied but the accuser is defied to produce either proof or reasonable semblance of proof! The charge has not the least foundation in fact.

THE Radicals hold their delegate elections to-morrow and their county convention on Monday. All this is sheer farce—the office-holders ring having sold the thing out two weeks ago. The convention was not even called until after all the arrangements were completed. The corrupt ring who squeeze the [illegible] out of the people, who so grossly persecuted ROBT. MCHENRY and others, (and escaped the consequences by inducing the revenue officials at Washington to unlawfully exact a promise that they should not be prosecuted) have manipulated the whole affair and the Republican masses have no more to do with it than their brethren in Ethiopia. The bargain is concluded, the contract is signed, sealed and delivered, the convention has nothing to do but to meet, pass some stale resolutions, and then adjourn and go home. It is just as easy to tell them now what they will do as it will be for them to tell it after the convention adjourns—only the official ring will not make report till after that date!

CONSCIENCE sometimes will prevent people from sleeping soundly, it is said, and if under such circumstances the amiable editor of the Republican imagined himself called a "liar," we assure him it was only a natural result of mental and physical condition; and when he was called a "falsifier" his muddy brain was only a little mixed—a real and natural word was intended by the "silent prompter,"—but the obliviousness of sleep or other natural or temporary cause got the syllables of the word jumbled. The facts remain all the same—something was exogitating a protest against fibbing, and the monitor in question may not always suggest polite terms. Always tell the truth and then you will not be troubled in that way.

A REPORT has got out that 400 subscribers to this paper have discontinued their subscriptions because of our determined and unyielding support of the nominees of the party and opposition to disorganizers. We beg to say that there have been but three discontinuances since the county convention, and only one of these for the cause assigned. The new subscriptions far outnumber these, and we do not think the volunteers combined have 400 Democratic supporters, or the half of that number, in the county. 400 indignant subscribers would make quite a respectable mass meeting of the kind, and unanimous discontinuance of their papers would fill up an editorial pocket that is rather dilapidated just now.

SURGEON STANTON is justly termed a "paper Colonel."

FORNEY'S Press has another attack of Ku-Klux fever, and its ravings are as virulent as ever.

A VOTE for MCCANDLESS and COOPER is a vote to purge two important branches of the State Government of thieves like EVANS and his backers.

The Crawford County System.

Again has the Crawford County System been tested by the Republicans of Lancaster county, and again has it been proven a most fruitful parent of corruption and fraud. The names of the candidates who were returned as highest on the list will be found elsewhere. The men who came out ahead in the count will constitute the Radical ticket, though there are very grave doubts as to whether a number of them ever received a majority of the votes actually cast. The air is filled with rumors of fraud and rascality, and very many honest Republicans are completely disgusted at the result. The ticket, taken throughout, is the worst and the weakest ever offered to the voters of the county.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

HOW THE MONEY GOES!

Something for Tax-payers to Consider.

$20,000,000 STOLEN—$20,000,000 UNACCOUNTED FOR—$300,000,000 "GONE WHERE THE WOODBINE TWINETH."

$1,000,000 of the people's money stolen from the steamer Golden Rule!

$2,225,000 missing while Secretary Boutwell was Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

$3,000,000 missing through U. S. Treasurer Spinner.

$19,000,000 missing in the Post Office Department.

$3,000,000 missing on account of sale of arms, vessels and munitions of war.

$1,000,000 missing on account of sale of iron-clads to Peru.

$20,000,000 missing on account of collectors of Internal Revenue.

During the past two years the receipts from customs, internal revenue and other sources aggregated $800,000,000. Of this sum about $200,000,000 has been appropriated to the payment of the national debt, while the "expenses of the government" were estimated at $300,000,000—leaving a balance of $300,000,000 unaccounted for. Is it any wonder that Republican office holders can afford to keep expensive carriages, dozens of expensive horses, liveried servants, and houses worth hundreds of thousands of dollars? Is it any wonder that all the leading men of the Republican party are living in a style far beyond their income from their salaries, and yet making money? Is it any wonder that millionaires in civil life become bankrupt in endeavoring to live in the same style as government officials who are supposed to receive salaries of $8,000 to $25,000 a year? Is it any wonder that Republican "State Agents," who have failed in gift enterprises, can amass $200,000 to $300,000 in four years in "doing business for the State," or that Republican State officers are afraid to prosecute such Agents for embezzlement?

$300,000,000 missing in two years!

$20,000,000 known to have been stolen, and $20,000,000 more, of internal revenue, missing under very suspicious circumstances!

Is it any wonder that business is dull, and that tax-payers are complaining?

Is it any wonder that honest men are leaving the Republican party and rallying under the banner of the Democracy?—Reading Gazette.

TAX! TAX!! TAX!!!

The following table compiled by the Cincinnati Enquirer, illustrates the usefulness radicalism in piling up, higher and higher, the load of taxation beneath which the people are groaning, oppressed by a burden too heavy for them to bear. The estimate is computed upon a few leading articles:

THE POOR MAN IS TAXED

On his salt	100 per cent.
On his pepper	100 " "
On his tea	85 " "
On his soap	60 " "
On his starch	60 " "
On his candles	70 " "
On the sheets of his bed	85 " "
On the blanket that covers him	80 " "
On the carpet he buys	85 " "
On his window curtains	80 " "
On his knives and forks	75 " "
On his window glass	50 " "
On his water pitcher	50 " "
On the hat he wears	40 " "
On his stockings	50 " "
On a dress of silk for his wife	50 " "
On a dress of woolen	100 " "
On a shawl	200 " "
On a handkerchief	50 " "

AND THE RICH MAN,

On his bonds.....NOTHING.

THE FARMER IS TAXED.

On his hoe and spade, each	40 per cent.
On his horse shoes	67 " "
On his plow	45 " "
On his chains	50 " "
On his harness	50 " "
On a hand saw	75 " "
On a pen knife	50 " "
On a dinner can	50 " "
On an iron hoop band	50 " "

AND THE BONDHOLDER,

On his bonds.....NOTHING.

It will be observed that the necessaries of life are the articles which are taxed the highest.—Lycoming Standard.

Why Should a Man be a Democrat!

Because Democrats are in favor of an honest, intelligent administration of the government.

Because the Democratic party is the party of the people.

Because the nation owes all it has in greatness to the early and judicious application of Democratic ideas and theories to the administration of its affairs.

Because the Democratic party is in favor of a Government of the people.

Because it is in favor of a plain system of government, "void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none, dispensing its blessings alike upon the high and the low, the rich and the poor."

Because the Democratic party is in favor of a Government not of force but of principle.

Because it is not a sensational party, but one whose principles are alike sacred to the people of the North, South, East and West.

Because it is a party opposed to "any kind of tyranny over the minds of men."

Because the Democratic party is in favor of maintaining the General Government in the exercise of its Constitutional powers, and of perpetuating to the States all the liberty commensurate with the maintenance of a sound civil government.

AN exchange publishes the following list of double-salaried officials under Grant. Doubtless there are others of the same sort yet uncarthed:

Gen. Babcock, Aid-de Camp to the President, receives two salaries, one as Colonel in the army, and another as Grant's Real Estate Agent in San Domingo, for which he is paid commission and mileage by the Government.

Gen. Porter, of the President's staff, receives two salaries, one as Brigadier General in the army, and one as Private Secretary to the President—both from the Government.

Gen. Dent, the President's brother-in-law, receives two salaries, one as a Brigadier General in the army, and one as Chief Usher at the White House. He draws both from the Government.

Fred. Grant, son of the President, is now receiving two salaries, one as Lieutenant of Cavalry from the Government, and one as Civil Engineer from Pacific Railroad Company.

GENERAL LONGSTREET, who was a graduate of West Point, and a regular army officer at the opening of the war, enjoys one of the most lucrative offices in the gift of the administration. His good fortune is due to his relationship with Grant, and his treatment is a remarkable illustration of the capricious favoritism of the administration. No man inflicted deeper injury on the Union cause than Longstreet. At Gettysburg his corps sent havoc into the Union ranks. But he is now honored, petted and rewarded, while the base minions of the administration strike at Gen. McCandless, a Pennsylvania hero, who led his brigade into the thickest of the battle at Gettysburg, and by his gallantry contributed no mean share to that great victory. This contrast affords a fine illustration of the nature of Radicalism.—Gettysburg Compiler.

THE Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says: "Secretary Boutwell, the ringleader against civil service reform, has just reported, per his Comptroller, Taylor, $1,750,126 stolen by several collectors, and $424,112 of 'unadjusted balances,' otherwise, money lost betwixt figuring and stealing; in all, more than two millions of taxes collected from the people, and then purloined by a gang of camp followers." If the people hope for a reduction of taxation, they must drive the Radicals from power. This is the only remedy.

THE effort of Scott and Cameron to set the Ku-Klux machinery in motion on the eve of an election in Pennsylvania, ought to be watched narrowly. Last year the State was insolently invaded, and the polls seized, and the men who prompted it then have now a far higher stimulus to renew the attempt.

ANOTHER FALSEHOOD.

How the Radicals Have Paid the State Debt.

$15,000,000 Increase in Ten Years.

The Pittsburgh Post most effectually disposes of the pretentious claim made by the Chairman of the Radical State Committee. It says:

"The public debt was not $16,000,000 in round numbers in 1861, The Auditor General's report to Governor Packer for that year puts it at $37,968,817.50. Against this was a sinking fund of $10,981,000, leaving the actual indebtedness of the State on the 1st of January, 1861, $26,988,817.50, or some $14,000,000 less than Mr. Ercit alleges, and some $3,000,000 less than it is now, after ten years of Radical rule.

"But our financier stops several leagues short of the truth in the exposition. If he will call upon our affable friend, the Hon. R. W. Mackey, State Treasurer, he will find that at the close of the last fiscal year the State debt of Pennsylvania was $31,116,610.00, instead of $26,000,000, and this, too, after deducting all sinking funds. He will also find out several other things worth publishing.

"Among other things he will find that in the matter of sinking funds alone the people of Pennsylvania have been robbed during the past ten years to the tune of $14,931,762 29. We propose to demonstrate this fact. During the past ten years the State Government has disposed of the public works, worth to the State $15,000,083.91, for which it realized the sum of $11,251,321.62, and which was carried to the sinking fund for the evident purpose of showing a reduction of the debt.

"But even that amount, added to the ten millions of sinking fund of ten years ago, and abstracted from the State debt, leaves it three millions greater than it was under the last Democratic administration; or, in other words, the State debt has increased about fifteen millions of dollars in the last ten years, or at the rate of a million and a half per year, which is the actual increase of the State debt for the past year, as will appear by inspection of the books of the State Treasurer and the Auditor General.

IN Ohio the assaults of the democratic speakers on the present system of national banking are producing their effects. It has ceased to be a treasonable crime or even a misdemeanor to give free expression of opinion concerning these institutions. On the contrary, the conviction is becoming general that they are an enormous public evil. The attitude of these banks towards the new loan has done much to convince the public of their utter worthlessness to the government. It was the duty of these favored institutions of the government to support with all their power the scheme to reduce the rate of interest on the bonds in return for the immense privilege of emitting three hundred and fifty millions of their notes, for bonds deposited in the national treasury on which they draw an annual interest of upwards of twenty millions.

But notwithstanding the extraordinary favors extended them these national banks were extremely shy of the new loan, and not until the last hour, when menaced with extreme measures by BOUTWELL, could they be driven to take the fifty millions of the five per cents, which were assigned them. This was quite as much as they could be persuaded to take, and in consequence of their default only two hundred millions of the five per cents. have reached the market, making the scheme of refunding an almost total failure.

The experiment of Secretary BOUTWELL with the national banks proves them utterly worthless to the government and the public. Their whole aim is to enrich themselves at the cost of the country. The whole system should be swept away forever. But the worst of all is that they have obtained so powerful an influence in congress that they can successfully resist every effort at reform. The agitation must commence with the people. There is no hope from the radical politicians who occupy seats in congress.—Harrisburg Patriot.

Evans, the State Agent, In New York.

REQUISITION FOR HIS ARREST—HE IS CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Mr. Evans, the State Agent of Pennsylvania, for procuring the payment by the Federal government of the war debt of that State, is now in this city. The recent investigation of the case, by order of the Governor, results in charging Evans with embezzlement. Governor Geary has made a requisition on Governor Hoffman for the surrender of Evans to the authorities of Pennsylvania for trial. Evans has engaged counsel, and it was reported by his friends yesterday, would lay the facts before Governor Hoffman, and request an examination here to show cause why he should be conveyed out of the State. It is asserted by the friends of Evans that the funding in Pennsylvania is a conspiracy of certain politicians, who demanded $25,000 of Evans, which was to be appropriated, in part, to the election of one Don Cameron to the United States Senate, and in part to a Philadelphia Radical newspaper. It is believed by those who profess to know that the quarrel growing out of this Harrisburg irregularity will disturb the "happy family" of Republicanism in Pennsylvania. The case may reach Governor Hoffman to-day, as the officer, with Governor Geary's warrants, arrived in this city last evening.—New York World, September 4.

A Few Millions More.

It has just been discovered that the accounts of the Post Office Department shows the deficiency for the past year of $19,000,000. No attaches of the department, of course, can explain where the money has gone. It has evidently traveled away in the same manner that the $2,000,000 of Secretary Boutwell and the $3,000,000 of Treasurer Spinner have gone. These $24,000,000 will soon be made up from the taxes gathered from the poor men of the country. Of course some people do not like to have their money fill the pockets of thieves, but as the President and the Republican leaders generally look smilingly on at the robbery, there is no use to complain. There is one remedy left to the people, however—vote against every man who sympathizes with the corrupt administration of President Grant. Down with the candidates nominated by the officeholders convention. Vote against Stanton and Beath, the friends of corruption, and elect to the responsible positions of Auditor and Surveyor General, M'Candless and Cooper, men who have proved their honesty and capability of taking care of the people's money. By electing such good and pure men is the only hope the people have of an honest management of the State's finances.

THE President of the United States has been away from the capital for over three months and contemplates protracting his stay until October. During his absence he has drawn from the treasury $6,250, and has passed part of three days in Washington, or at the rate of one day per month, for which he has received the compensation of $2,083 a day. In other words, General GRANT, for signing his name during these rare visits, has pocketed the wages of fourteen hundred laboring men, who work ten hours and receive $1.50 each. So that it is something to be President in a practical point of view, when the incumbent gets $25,000 a year for amusing himself, and is presented with bonds, houses, and horses to the extent of half a million. No wonder he seeks a re-election.—Harrisburg Patriot.

THE Grand Duke Alexis is now on his way from Russia to this country. He will meet with a grand national reception, in token of American appreciation of the steady friendship of Russia towards the United States on all occasions.

THE cholera is appearing in all parts of Germany. No more cases are reported in England.

A RADICAL paper calls Evans's embezzlement "a serious case of official presumption." Very serious.

A VOTE for a Republican ticket is a vote for Centralization—for a change of this Government to a Despotism.

THERE is a reported deficit, unaccounted for, in the Post Office Department, of nineteen millions of dollars!

THE Post Office Department has just ciphered out a deficit in its accounts of $19,000,000. Don't the people pay though, for this Radical whistle?

A SEPARATE ticket has been put in the field in Schuylkill county, by the Labor Reform party. Similar movements have been made in other counties of the State.

With enormous frauds are committed in every department of the State and National Government, and with a President who is using bayonets to stifle the expression of the people's will, what hope is there for the Republic?

ANOTHER amnesty meeting has been held in Dublin, and another riot followed. The police and people came in collision, and a fierce fight took place, during which both sides suffered. A large number of arrests were made.

THE Radical tariff is so adjusted that of every hundred dollars imposed upon the people, about five dollars go into the treasury, ninety-five into the pockets of wealthy monopolists. It is a system of fraud and exortion upon the masses of the people that no other country would tolerate for a day.

ATTENTION VOTERS.—All Democrats should see to it at once that their names are registered. The registry list will be found posted up at the usual places of voting in all the boroughs and townships in the county. Make a personal examination at once and if your name is not on it lose no time in applying to the assessor.

GEN. LONGSTREET, who was educated at West Point at the expense of the country, was in the army when the war broke out, betrayed the government and fought against it during the war, now holds a fat office under the administration because he is a cousin of Grant. To be a cousin to the President covers up all other ills.

THE accounts of the Post Office Department show a deficiency of $19,000,000. No one knows anything about the missing funds. They have "gone where the woodbine twineth," along with the $2,250,000 of Secretary Boutwell, and the $3,000,000 of Treasurer Spinner. How long will our people submit to be plundered in this manner?

GEORGE W. RICHARDSON, the Radical solicitor of Coosa county, blindfolded, gagged, and whipped two little negro girls, and threatened them with death if they should ever tell who committed the outrage. He was trying to manufacture a Ku-klux outrage to serve as the basis for further persecution of Southern Democrats. But, fortunately for us, he was detected, and his design exposed by a negro.—Montgomery Advertiser.

LOOK AT THE FIGURES!—One of the most unanswerable arguments of the late Democratic address to the voters of Pennsylvania, is the statement that the ordinary Government expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 1, 1870, exclusive of Indian annuities, pensions, and interest on the public debt, were $118,669,522 13; for the year ending June 1, 1869, the expenditures for the same purpose were only $55,018,188.72. These figures are significant.

THERE is some dissatisfaction in Northumberland county, but it will be merged in the general desire to poll a solid Democratic vote this fall in all parts of the State. If this spirit prevails, the State ticket will be elected by a fine majority. The Senate is safe in our hands, and a gain of four members will give us the House. This gain should certainly be made. We can gain at least one in the city, perhaps three, and our friends in the country must do the rest. We believe they will do it.—Age.

Court.

On account of the indisposition of Judge ELWELL, who has not yet entirely recovered from a recent severe illness, the members of the bar unanimously agreed to continue the entire civil list, and no Court at all will be held next week. This graceful action by the bar was deserved by Judge ELWELL, who is one of the ablest and most respected Judges now on the bench, though we are informed he was willing to go on with the trial of causes notwithstanding his prostration resulting from severe illness. That his health and strength may be speedily restored is the sincere desire of all our people and they will quite cheerfully forego a term of court to conduce to that end. The criminal business was all of a petty nature but it and the other necessary business of the term were promptly attended to and disposed of. The attendance at Court on Monday was large but the crowd was soon thinned off after it was announced that no civil cases would be tried.

WE are indebted to Mr. GEORGE HAZZERT for a very fine lot of Concord Grapes. His vines are loaded with this delicious fruit.

JUDICIOUS advertising always pays.

If you have a good thing, advertise it.

If you haven't, don't.

If you don't mean to mind your own business, it will not pay to advertise.

Never run down your opponent's goods in public. Let him do his own advertising.

It is as true of advertising as of any thing else in this world—if it is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well.

We don't recommend advertising as the best way to get a wife; but we know that it is the best way to get a good trade.

WHY NOT.—There is an article going the rounds headed, "Don't sit on the Door step." Why not? The writer says that you will surely catch cold and soon begin to talk hoarse. We don't believe a word of it. We believe any person, in the evening, can sit with impunity on the door step, provided the sit does not extend to the late hours of the night, when the damp becomes too great or the fog too thick. Of course we do not say persons should sit in a draught. That is decidedly unhealthy; but to sit where the air has an equal pressure over the whole system, has no more to do with catching cold than it has with catching flies, and not half as much as it has with getting mosquito bites.

INDIVIDUAL editors have been frequently honored by appointment or election to positions of honor, but it does not occur often in the course of a thousand years, we'll bet, that such a wholesale appointment of editors is made to responsible and honorable positions as has just been made by the Agricultural Society which will soon hold a fair in Sunbury. All the editors of Northumberland county have been created a board of judges to decide a foot race.—Northumberland Co. Democrat.

THE Boston Post says that mad dogs as a sensation, have been almost a total failure this summer. We can say the same in this city. The usual effort was made by some of our contemporaries. They excited one or two policemen to begin the old practice of firing off their revolvers in the public streets, at suspected curs. But as soon as the sound reached the quick ears of the Women's Branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, &c., they had the policemen arrested. No mad dog has since been seen here. The agents of the Society arrest every stray dog, give him time to write to his friends, and, if not called for, he is quickly sent "to another and a better world." This is a great improvement on the old system. —Age.

Court Proceedings.

[Reported for the Columbian.]

The general September term of the Columbia county Courts convened last Monday, 4th inst. His Honor WILLIAM ELWELL, President Judge, and his Associate Hon. IRAM DERR, on the Bench, Hon. ISAAC S. MONROE, the other Associate, being absent on account of illness.

The respective constables of the county were sworn and made their returns, returning the roads and bridges in good condition throughout the county generally.

John K. Girton, Saml. Stettler and Joseph Ikeler were appointed tipstaves to attend the court and juries.

Samuel Rhone, Esq., of Benton, was appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury.

Upon the suggestion of the members of the Bar, the Civil List of Causes for trial at this term was continued on account of the late severe illness of his Honor Judge ELWELL, they not thinking it prudent to weary him with the tedious ness of such trials as might be delayed. Judge ELWELL suggested that he would call upon another Judge to try the causes that were ready, but to this the Bar positively objected, and the list was therefore continued.

A curious and unique machine for grinding coffee may be seen at MAIZE'S grocery. Whether the machine was invented to grind coffee, or coffee was invented to be ground by the machine, is the problem to be solved, various merits are claimed for it, but the best way is to test it, or at least go and see it.

The most astonishing cure of chronic diarrhœa we ever heard of is that of Wm. Clark, Frankfort Mills, Waldo Co., Maine; the facts are attested by Ezra Treat, Upton Treat, and M. A. Merrill, either of whom might be addressed for particulars. Mr. Clark was cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Do not fail to call at the new millinery store of I. W. NILES, as he has just received a splendid assortment of sheet music, and a general assortment of Musical Merchandise. Go and hear the Angelic Organ as how such a beautiful tone, and Prof. NILES will be happy to show the beauties of his Pianos and Organs to all who wish. Give him a call. aug.25,'71-tf

THE new disinfectant, RECTO CHLORARUM meets the great want of something adapted to all conditions where prompt deodorizing and disinfection are necessary. It is entirely odorless, non-poisonous and harmless, and being largely diluted when used, its economy brings it within the reach of all who wish to employ this simple means for the preservation of health during the warm season.

As long as people who cannot make them themselves must wear BOOTS or SHOES they had better buy them where they can get the best at the lowest prices. The advertisements in the COLUMBIAN will show where that is. Within the range of our observation there is no better, cheaper or more general assortment, coarse and fine and of various intermediate degrees, substantial and beautiful, for men, women and children, downy young gents or blushing misses, and everybody else, than at H. M. KNORR'S. To test the truth of all this, go and see.

EXUBERANT HEALTH is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve those precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life, and exemptions from disease and pain, than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a staminal medicine, i. e. it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased, competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and, as far as the public is concerned, ad nauseam, in the hope of rivaling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the great medical success of the present century, and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (sundays excepted,) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over eight millions a year.

THE HISTORY OF COLUMBIA

coming from its organization in 1871 to 1871, collected and edited by JOHN G. FREEZE, Esq., containing 500 pages, 12mo. cloth bound, $2.50, will be ready [illegible]

The leading features in the history of the late war for the suppression of the Rebellion and Monument, has volumes given the organization of each regiment, its battle-ground, its fallen heroes, and the erection of Monument commenced in the county. A chapter on the streams and mountains—its description of the townships, and [illegible] and the history of all in which they were formed—the personnel of the courts, comprising the names of the President Judges the Associate Judges, Coroners, Prothonotaries, Sheriffs and the resident Attorneys of both Columbia and Montour.

It gives sketches of Bloomsburg, Danville, Berwick, Catawissa and all the smaller towns, Fair and college associations, The Railroad Question, and the Year 1870 in a busy way.

The census for 1870 is given, including Montour. In 1860 it was 16,000 for the two counties for 1871 and 18,000 of these of it in each township. A very complete list of the soldiers is given, comprising the names of those who enlisted from the county in the Regular Army and Navy, and the Second Pennsylvania Cavalry, and the Pennsylvania Reserves, and also the Pennsylvania Militia.

THE WAR RECORD OF COLUMBIA AND MONTOUR

contains a complete list of all the companies and parts of companies recruited in the county, the No. of the Regiment, the time they were engaged in the service, the number of men in each company, and the names in the order of their enlistment. Also a complete list of the commissioned officers, with the date of their commissions, and a complete list of the casualties, being a complete war record of the county.

ALSO

THE INVASION OF COLUMBIA COUNTY,

the trials of our citizens, the great argument of Judge Black on Military Commissions, and the opinion of the United States Supreme Court, condemning them. Together with much other exceedingly interesting and interesting matter.

GEORGE A. CLARK, of Bloomsburg, is authorized to receive subscriptions for the work and to be paid for on delivery. aug. 18,'71-3m

THIS MEDALLION IS EMBEDDED IN EVERY GENUINE HOWE SEWING MACHINE

QUALITIES OF THE ELIAS HOWE SEWING MACHINE:

It draws up a stitch as you do by hand, others do not. It gives thread for each stitch according to the thickness of fabric sewed, others do not. It uses a straight needle and finer for same thread than any other machine. The stitch is alike on both sides. It has in addition to these all advantages claimed by other machines. It has been tested and is known to be the most durable machine in the market. The fact that sewing machine men are seldom to obtain the money of this machine is conclusive evidence that the public are largely in favor of this machine, which has not changed the principle since its formation viz: Drawing a stitch as you do by hand.

TREADWELL SEED WHEAT FOR SALE.

The undersigned has on hand, direct from Edinburgh, over 500 bushels of Treadwell Seed Wheat, which he will dispose of at private sale, or on a public sale when that will be more convenient. Having imported the Treadwell Wheat, with about the usual quantity of straw to the acre as other wheat, does not fall near so readily as the Lancaster Wheat, and has the peculiarity of bearing both smooth and bearded heads. It does not winter kill. I have tested the wheat for two years and can recommend it from experience. It is commended to be weevil proof and has not been affected by it with me. Heads large and full. The Following Verses

SHOULD BE TWICE READ TO BE APPRECIATED.

There are proverbs of old
Which have often been told,
That a stitch in time saves us much mending;
That a word to the wise
Was enough to suffice,
Without a whole lecture descending.

Now if such is the case,
As no doubt you'll profess,
Keep the following rem in your mind;
Although nothing new,
Nevertheless it is true,
As each sufferer on trial will find.

If you wish to protect,
Without bad effect,
Your system from all kinds of ills,
Do not be morose—
Only two for a dose,
Dr. Hoofland's Podophyllin Pills.

If you suffer from sprains,
Or from rheumatic pains,
Or aches from overtasked toil,
To get rid of such ills,
Use (Dr. Hoofland's) Bitters and Pills,
And bathe with Hoofland's Greek Oil.

If you've suffered for years,
You need have no fears,
They (Dr. Hoofland's German Medicines) will cure disease, acute or chronic;
If you cleanse (your bowels) with the Pills,
Use the Greek Oil for pains,
And strengthen with Bitters and Tonic.

Rules for Railroad Travelers.

1st. Purchase through tickets previously to entering the cars. By observing this rule the traveler will save trouble and expense.

2d. Attend to checking your baggage in person before taking your seat in the car.

3d. Be polite to your fellow passengers.

4th. When you leave your seat, place a parcel, coat, or something belonging to you on it, which is an evidence of the seat being engaged.

5th. Have the exact change to pay your fare on the cars, or you are subjected to be ejected from the cars—it has been decided by law that a conductor is not obliged to make change for a passenger.

6th. Railroad CHECKS are good only for the train for which they are used; passengers cannot lay over for another train without making arrangements with the conductor.

7th. LADIES without escort in traveling should be very particular with whom they become acquainted.

"If your lips would save from slips,
Five things observe with care:
Of whom you speak—to whom you speak,
And how—and when—and where."

When you see a fellow over-anxious for your comfort, and pushing himself forward and saying, "Are you traveling alone? Allow me to," etc., etc., just say to him "Thank you, sir, I require no assistance." By observing this rule, ladies will oft-times save themselves and others trouble.

8th. If you see a lady unaccompanied, do not obtrude yourself upon her notice.

9th. If she needs your services, tender them as though they were due to her, without unnecessary forwardness, or undue EMPRESSMENT.

10th. Such services do not entitle you to after recognition, unless by permission of the lady.

11th. Ladies traveling with children should invariably have a basket of eatables, a tumbler or a goblet for the children to drink from and keep the children in their seats.

12th. Keep your head and arms inside the car windows.

13th. Ladies without escort should not stop over night before reaching their place of destination—remember this.

14th. Never talk on politics in the cars—it is usually disagreeable to some of your fellow-travelers.

15th. Never talk loudly while the train is in motion; it may not annoy any one, but it will injure your lungs.

16th. A gentleman should not occupy more than one seat at a time.

17th. Gentlemen should not spit tobacco juice in the cars where there are ladies; it soils their skirts and dresses.

18th. Children who are six or seven years old, and who are in the habit of crying for everything they see, should be taught differently.

19th. Always show your ticket (without getting into a bad humor,) whenever the conductor asks for it. Observe this rule and it will pay.

20th. Never smoke in a car where there are ladies. No gentleman would be guilty of such an act.

21st. Never use profane language in a railroad car.

22d. If you cannot sleep yourself, don't prevent others from doing so, by whistling or loud talking.

23d. Make a bargain with the hackman before getting into his carriage.

24th. Look out for pickpockets.

25th. Never give information without being asked—then you will not be contradicted.

26th. Remember, that unless you pay for two seats you are entitled to but one, and every gentleman and lady too, will respect the rights of others, and be mindful especially of the weak, the aged and the infirm.

27th. Provide yourself with sleeping berths before starting—you may then have a choice—the double lower birth is preferable.

28th. Always be at the railroad station in good time to take the train. Better be an hour too early than a minute too late.

A MAD JUDGE.—A judge in Western Pennsylvania went to the river to bathe the other morning, and while he was swimming about, some abandoned scoundrel stole all his clothes, except his high hat and umbrella. We won't try to tell how mad the judge was, because, although the English language is copious enough, its most efficient and vigorous adjectives are entirely unequal to the expression of certain degrees of emotion. But he stayed in the water about four hours, experimenting with the different kinds of imprecations, and endeavoring to select two or three of the sturdiest objurgations for application to the thief. At last he came out, and after mounting the high hat, he opened the umbrella and tried to cover his retreat up the street toward his own house. It appeared to the judge that all the female pupils of the boarding schools and one Woman's Rights Convention, were out promenading that day; and the judge had an awful time going through the Zouave drill with the umbrella. When he reached home he heard that the thief had been captured; and the judge is now engaged in writing out his charge to the jury in advance of the trial. Those who have seen the rough draft say it is the most picturesque law paper ever drawn up in that country.

Dish Washing Machine.

The object of this invention is to provide convenient means for cleansing dishes by machinery, thus saving much time and labor. A box is elevated so as to be of convenient height, preferably with a circular or inclined bottom, to conduct the water to one point; but this is not an indispensable feature, as the machine will work with a flat or level bottom. A washing wheel revolves transversely in the vessel, formed of a shaft and arms more or less in number, to which are attached wings. This washing wheel is revolved by means of a crank, on one end of the wheel shaft, and is placed so that the wings will sweep a short distance from the bottom. Removable racks, which fit into the box on either side of the washing wheel are provided with vertical slides for separating the plates or dishes which are placed in the machine. Above the racks and the washing wheel are removable trays, one or more, with lattice bottoms, and with slides constructed and arranged so as to admit and support any kind of dishes which it may be desired to put into the machine.

The inventor does not confine herself to any particular construction or arrangement of the racks or trays; but constructs them in such a manner that the space each side and above the wheel shall be utilized and the whole made convenient for placing in the machine and removing therefrom ordinary table dishes, and so that when placed in the machine they shall be exposed separately to the action of the water or suds employed in the washing process.

When sufficient quantity of hot water and soap has been placed in the machine and has been fastened down, the wheel is turned six or eight revolutions in either or both directions, when the water is drawn off through the orifice, and clean hot water is introduced and the wheel is again revolved. This completes the washing. The water is drawn off and the cover is raised, which allows the steam or vapor to escape. This soon dries the dishes and they are again ready for use. Harriet C. Robertson, of East Saginaw, Mich., is the inventor of this machine.—Scientific American.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS.—To tell a man to his face to mind his own business would be considered about equal to knocking him down. Yet it is one of the simplest rules of conduct, and the most useful that mankind can adopt in their intercourse with each other. There is a great deal of wonderful inquisitiveness in regard to the personal and private affairs of friends and neighbors. This spirit makes more mischief in the community than almost any other cause, and creates more malice, envy and jealousy than can be overcome in a century. Let every man mind his own business, and there will not be half the trouble in the world that there is at present.

AN AMATEUR poet whose heart is in the right place, and whose head is pretty level, gets off the following:

Never slip around the bush to drink,
For if you do, you soon will think
You're on the very devil's brink—
That's so.
Do you hear, young man, what I'm saying?
You must do less drinking and do more praying,
Or else you'll soon be lying
In the gutter.
Be temperate, be good, is my advice,
Drink no liquor, play no dice,
Be moral, that's what is nice—

THE Cleveland Herald says: The other day a woman postmaster was married—we will call her maiden name Smith and her marriage name Jones. Now who was the postmaster after that ceremony? Certainly not Miss Smith. And certainly not Mrs. Jones, for no such postmaster was known to the department. There's the bother. And woman must give up matrimony or must waive some of her "rights."

"I WEEDED my friends," said an eccentric old man, "by hanging a piece of stair carpet out of my first floor window with a constable's announcement affixed. It had the desired effect. I soon saw who were my friends. It was like firing a gun at a pigeon house. They forsook the building at the first report."

A Western paper thus sings the requiem of a departed contemporary, which lately went the way of nearly all mushroom papers:—

Leaf by leaf the roses fall,
Dime by dime the purse runs dry,
One by one, beyond recall,
Mushroom papers droop and die.

AN up country printer recently went into the rural districts after some 'help.' Going up to Mr. Henpeck, he said: "Good morning, sir; have you any boys that would make good type setters?" "No; but I have a wife that would make a first-class devil!"

DR. BUSH thinks the reason the Germans die so rarely of consumption is that they are in the habit of singing from their earliest childhood, and the habit expands their lungs in the most healthful manner.

Patent Medicines.

ONE MILLION OF LIVES SAVED.

It is one of the remarkable facts of this remarkable age, not merely that so many persons are the victims of dyspepsia or indigestion, but its willing victims. Now, we would not be understood to say that any one regards dyspepsia with favor, or feels disposed to rank it among the luxuries of life. Far from it. Those who have experienced its torments would scout such an idea. All dread it, and would gladly dispense with its unpleasant familiarities. Mark Tapley, who was jolly under all the trying circumstances in which he was placed, never had an attack of dyspepsia, or his jollity would have speedily forsaken him. Men and women sometimes suffer its tortures uncomplainingly, but whoever heard of a person who enjoyed them?

Of all the multifarious diseases to which the human system is liable, there is perhaps no one so generally prevalent as dyspepsia. There are diseases more acute and painful, and which more frequently prove fatal; but none, the effect of which are so depressing to the mind and so positively distressing to the body. If there is a wretched being in the world it is

A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC.

But it is not our intention to dissant on the horrors of dyspepsia. To do describe it truthfully is simply an impossibility, it is possible to point out a remedy. We have said that dyspepsia is perhaps the most universal of human diseases. This is emphatically the case in the United States. Whether this general prevalence is due to the character of the food, the method of its preparation, or the fast, too generally indulged in when it is usually swallowed, is not our province to explain. The great fact with which we are called to deal is this:

DYSPEPSIA PREVAILS

almost universally.

Nearly every other person you meet is a victim, and apparently willing one; for were this not the case why so many sufferers, when a certain, speedy and safe remedy is within the easy reach of all who desire to avail themselves of it? But the majority will not. Blinded by prejudice, or deterred by some other unexplained influence, they refuse to accept the relief proffered them. They turn a deaf ear to the testimony of the thousands whose sufferings have been alleviated and with strange infatuation, appear to cling with desperate determination to their ruthless tormentor. But says a dyspeptic: What is this remedy? To which we reply: This great alleviator of human suffering is almost universally known as the English language. It has allayed the agonies of thousands, and is to-day carrying comfort and encouragement to thousands of others. This acknowledged panacea is none other than

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Would you know more of the merits of this wonderful medicine than can be learned from the experience of others? Try it yourself, and when it has failed to fulfil the accurance of its efficacy given by the proprietor, then abandon faith in it.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED,

first of all, that HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is not a rum beverage.

They are not alcoholic in any sence of the term. They are composed wholly of the pure juice or vital principle of roots. This is not a mere assertion. The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the ablest of German chemists. Unlike any other Bitters in the market, they are wholly free from spirituous ingredients. The objections which hold with so much force against preparations of this class, namely—that a desire for intoxicating drinks is stimulated by their use, are not valid in the case of the German Bitters. So far from encouraging or inculcating a taste or desire for inebriating beverages, it may be confidently asserted that their tendency is in a diametrically opposite direction. Their effects can be in all cases of the biliary system. Hoofland's German Bitters stand without an equal, acting upon the liver with unerring certainty. They remove its torpidity and cause healthful secretion of bile—thereby supplying the stomach with the most indis pensable elements of sound digestion in proper proportions. They give tone to the stomach—stimulating its functions, and enabling it to perform its duties as nature designed it should do. They impart vigor and strength to the entire system, causing the patient to feel like another being—in fact, giving him a new lease of life.

BENEFICIAL ONLY

THEY PURIFY THE BLOOD,

cleansing the vital fluid of all hurtful impurities and supplanting them with the elements of genuine healthfulness. In a word, there is scarcely a disease in which they cannot be safely and beneficially employed; but as that most generally prevalent distressing and dreaded disease, Dyspepsia,

THEY STAND UNRIVALED.

Now, there are certain classes of persons to whom extreme Bitters are not only unpalatable but who find it impossible to take them without positive discomfort. For such was designed. This medicine is used in all cases where a slight alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the well known Tonic properties of the pure German Bitters. This Tonic contains all the ingredients of the Bitters, but so flavored as to remove the extreme bitterness. This preparation is not only palatable but combines, in modified form, all the virtue of the German Bitters. The solid extracts of roots of Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, etc., are held in solution by a spirituous agent of the purest quality. In cases of languor or excessive debility where the system appears to have become exhausted of its energies,

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

HOOFLAND'S TONIC

acts with almost marvelous effect. It not only stimulates the flagging and wasting energies but invigorates and permanently strengthens its action upon the Liver and Stomach thorough, perhaps less prompt than the Bitters, when the same quantity is taken is none the less certain. Indigestion, Biilliousness, Physical or Nervous Prostration, yield readily to its potent influence. It gives the invalid a new and stronger hold upon life, removes depression of spirits, and inspires cheerfulness. It supplies the place of disease with the case and comfort of perfect health. It gives strength to weakness, throws despondency to the winds, and starts the restored invalid upon a new and glad career. But liv, Hoofland's benefactions to the human race are not confined to his celebrated or his invaluable TONIC. He has prepared another medicine, which is rapidly winning its way to popular favor because of its intrinsic merits. This is a perfect substitute for mercury, without any of mercury's evil qualities.

GERMAN BITTERS,

HOOFLAND'S PODOPHYLLIN PILLS,

These wonderful Pills, which are intended to act upon the Liver, are mainly composed of Podophyllin, or the

VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE MANDRAKE

Now we desire the reader to distinctly understand that this extract of the Mandrake is many times more powerful than the Mandrake itself. It is a medicine virtues of this health-giving plant in its purest form, and the Pills contain concentrated form. Hence it is that two of the Podophyllin Pill constitute a full dose, while anywhere six to eight or a handful of preparations of the Mandrake are required. The Podophyllin stimulating its functions and causing it to make its biliary secretions in regular and proper quantities. The injurious results which invariably follow the use of mercury is entirely avoided by their use. But it is not upon the Liver only that their powers are exerted. The extract of Mandrake contained in them is skillfully combined with four other extracts, one of which acts upon the stomach, one upon the upper bowels, one upon the lower bowels, and one prevents any griping effect, thus producing a pill that influences the entire digestive and alimentary system, in an equal and harmonious manner, and its action entirely free from nausea, vomiting or griping pains common to all other purgatives.

ACTS DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER,

Possessing these much desirable qualities, the Podophyllin becomes invaluable as a FAMILY MEDICINE.

No household should be without them. They are perfectly safe, require but two for an ordinary dose, are prompt and efficient in action, and when used in connection with Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, or Tonic, may be regarded as certain specifics in all cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, or any of the disorders to which the system is ordinarily subject. The act upon the stomach and bowels, carrying off improper obstructions, while the Bitters or Tonic purify the blood, strengthen and invigorate the frame, give tone and appetite to the stomach, and thus rebuild up the invalid anew.

Dr. Hoofland, having provided internal remedies for diseases, has given the world one mainly for external application, in the wonderful preparation known as

DR. HOOFLAND'S GREEK OIL.

This Oil is a sovereign remedy for pains a aches of all kinds.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Chilblains, Sprains, Burns, Pain in the Back and Loins, Ringworms, &c., all yied to its external application. The number of cures effected by it is astonishing, and they are increasing every day.

Taken internally, it is a cure for Heart-burns, Kidney Diseases, Sick Headaches, Colic, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains in the Stomach, Colds, Asthma, &c.

The Greek Oil is composed entirely of healing gums and essential oils. The principal ingredient is an oily substance, procured in the southern part of Greece. Its effects as a destroyer of pain are truly magical. Thousands have been benefited by its use, and a trial by those who are skeptical will thoroughly convince them of its inestimable value.

These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality, upon application to the PRINCIPAL OFFICE, at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 631 Arch St., Philadelphia.

CONSUMPTION,

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE,

BY J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT,

Dr. Schenck has in his own case preserved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convicting.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originated in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition, the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Hence then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION,

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophyllum Peltatum. They possess all the blood—searching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND,"

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more faintness, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an Individual to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature comes to its assistance. It ripens and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs, in the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! as a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or the womanhood that was.

GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in the winter season, are all wrong. In the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulations of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair or cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physician thought I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I threw up more than a pint of offensive matter every morning for a long time.

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continues to see patients at their offices, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M., to 1 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them. First create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough ceases, the night sweats stop, and in a short time both of these morbid symptoms are

OF THE PAST.

In cases of scrofula, or king's evil, or any of purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylacterie against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

BALTIMORE PIANOS.

We respectfully call the attention of those desiring to purchase our make of Pianos. We have satisfied that we can give satisfaction in every case. Our workmen skilful and experienced and are under the personal superintendence of the members of our firm. We use only the best seasoned timber, and the material in general is first class. Our Pianos without exception have the patent agraffes arrangement throughout, which in the opinion of the most competent judges is pronounced valuable. By this improvement a Piano is made more durable and keeps the tone longer. We claim for our instruments that they are second to none, and they combine all the essential elements that constitute superior workmanship. We will give a written guarantee for five years.

Mr. CONRAD FREIMAN, member of our firm, will visit Bloomsburg four times a year to repair and attend to tuning of all Pianos. In the absence of Mr. FREIMAN, Mr. J. K. MILLER will attend to our business in Bloomsburg and is authorized to receive and solicit orders.

AGENTS Wanted for SATAN IN SOCIETY

A NEW BOOK of the greatest interest and importance. Written from a high moral and physiological standpoint, by an eminent physician and medical professor, it shows how Satan is working out his subtle and dangerous designs through our most sacred domestic and social relations. Pure-minded, but outspoken and aggressive, the author handles the delicate subjects treated of without gloves, but in such a manner as not to minister to a prurient curiosity. The Physical Regeneration of the Race, is a subject justly claiming the interest and sympathy of all true philanthropists, and this book it is believed, will contribute to that end just in proportion as it has readers. A circular sent free, containing a full description and synopsis of the work with liberal extracts. C. F. VENT, Publisher, sept29'70-1y 5 College Place, N. Y.

NEW FIRM AT ORANGEVILLE

IRON FOUNDRY AND AGRICULTURAL WORKS.

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS IN PLOWS AND THRESHING MACHINES.

Mr. Jacob Trivelpiece having purchased the interest of Charles W. Low in the above named works, the business will be continued under the firm name of WILLIAM SCHUYLER & Co. Having discovered several imperfections in the plows manufactured in 1870, they have strengthened and improved them, and added some entire new patterns. They will open the Spring trade of 1871 far in advance of anything ever offered to the public, being both practical mechanics, and having their work all done under their own supervision they guarantee their work superior in material and finish to any heretofore offered. Dealers should not accept of any other agricultural implements until they have examined our Manufacture. Farmers should try our plows before buying any other. They also manufacture
